& La Roche by name, & type I got them finally disposed of & handed over to their people it was rather late on Monday afternoon.
I then strolled down to Mr Crow's office, & found Mr Rudolf there & Arthur Crow - Crow sent & all the other members of both families being away in the Country. I got letters from Eva & a few other notes, & decided to leave next morning for this place. Mr Rudolf asked me to go over to Rock Ferry & spend the night with him, which I did, getting back the next morning just in time for the train to the north, & arrangements

Confronted the severe enemy.

I had intended Concentrating my baggage & bringing but one trunk with, but not having time in Spool.
Left my wooden boxes there, & brought all the rest on here. In the

In Mr. Statton at Spool I happened to meet the Rev. Mr. Black (Greenshields). Yesterday I went up to Edwinstown & spent most of the day there with Ella doing shopping & some other business.

I am now on the point of settling out again to complete matters, & have written to Eva to say that I hope to be with her

On Saturday my. To stay a day or two days at Frowe & then go on via Palidman Canal &c. return to Edinburgh before the end of next week. I shall then probably have to go for a day to see the people at Dundee & spend another day or so in Edinburgh before leaving for England again.

My letter is short but I cannot well sit longer now. I think you must be the sistorographer of this expedition. I have asked Ella what she thinks about returning with us to spend a little time in Canada but she does not seem to know what to say yet. I was surprised & disheartened
