

Mrs. Puffenb

Brighton

May 24th. 1851.

I have this moment seen in the Gazette, that I may address you, my very dear friend, as Lady Dawson.

I rejoice with you, this honor is so well earned.

I cannot tell you the pleasure it gives me.

Please give my love,
and congratulations

To Sir John William Dawson.
— Long may you both live,
and grace the honors
given —

Will you give much love
from me, to your home
circle, for yourself take love in large measure
from Your affectionate friend
Grace Bridgpath.
