My dear mother,

I received a note from Father this morning.

Please thank him for the copy of the Princeton Review sent at same time. Please also thank Rankine for information sent by him.

I was out yesterday in the phosphate country to the north, and had a drive of about fifty-miles. The sleighing was very good but the weather a trifle cold. It was very a pleasure excursion, or account for such. On Monday Evng I dined at Govt. House. Quite a swell party. Twelve I think in all at table. Solemn & imposing event. I am pretty busy just now with one thing & another, but do not get on my feet with my work, which is provoking. I may possibly be able to go to Montreal next Saturday, but dont know yet. When I decide by what steamer to sail I will be in a
