Dear M^{rs} Dawson

My father prefers Friday of the days you mentioned as free, so I hope we may have the pleasure of seeing you, & the your husband & daughter there.

That will be the 16th inst:
& we dine at half-past seven o'clock. If you can come & see us during any other day, we shall be very glad to see you; but I can well imagine how busy you are now, & what a tie these friendly engagements are.

I ought to have apologized to you for calling so early this morning - but I wanted to find you in, as I daresay you understood.

With kind regards

Believe me

Yours sincerely
E. A. Gladstone
