19th May

My dear Mr. Dawson

In case of Missing you when I call ~~on~~ I write to say that it will give us much pleasure if Mr. Dawson, Miss D. & you can dine with us on Saturday next, the 24th, at 7.30.

I was very sorry to miss you when you & Miss Newson kindly called the other day. I hope when we meet to be able to arrange a drive somewhere.

With kind regards

Yours very sincerely
M. F. Lockman

Since writing the above, the weather has become so bad that I fear I must give up all thoughts of calling on you today. The bearer will wait a reply.
