

MCGILL UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES
ACC. NO.	976/19
REF.	13

The Manor House,
Chislehurst.

June 23rd.

My very dear friend.

How good of you
to write that very sweet note to me.

I was pleased to hear that you were having fine weather, from all I hear, this is un-
-fined to Scotland.

We have had some lovely days since our return from Eastbourne, & now after this rest,
I am hoping to see
loved friends, and we think this would be such a quiet place for you to bring your dear husband to, to rest. We would not let anyone to know

where he was hiding!
I know that he & my
dear husband would enjoy a quiet time together, & you & I & dear Eva could be very happy during the quiet time!!

How pleased we shall be to see you

again -

My dear sister spent to-day with me in the garden, it is looking very lovely, she expects to-morrow to remain all night, she with Mr: Redpath join with
me in much love,

Your affectionate
friend.

Grace Redpath.