

Armstrong at Keswick

Acc. 1377

St. Oswald,
Grasmere, R.S.O.

26 June 1884.

My dear Mr. Dawson,

I certainly think you had better adopt the Keswick route on Monday. - It will enable you en passant "to see the whole extent, & length, of the Lake District, for I shall recommend Winder." here as the point of exit.

There will be no trouble on our part in coming to meet you at Verwick; it is always a pleasure to have an excuse for driving there when the weather is satisfactory.

If it happens to be a fine day, you must steal your news as you will probably have to encounter the sight of both of us there at the station! - You will arrive at 2.19 p.m. & the coach here will not start for a couple of hours yet, so that we hope to be able to see the vicar & point out a few things of interest in the place before coming on here. -

Do whatever you deem most convenient to yourself about the books. - Our Circles from what you say, will, I am sure, be able to tackle one or both of them.

The enclosed came this morning & I therefore forward it at once. -

My wife joins me in best regards to you both & wishes that I am

Very faithfully yours,

J. F. Armstrong

P.S. I am glad to hear Dr. Dutton looks so prosperous a page. -
