

57 Regents Park Road
London. N.W.

August 24. 1881.

My dear Lady Dawson,

I called at 10 Holles Street on Thursday last, only to find unfortunately ~~that~~ that you had all left London that morning - so that my last chance ^{was over} of seeing you again and giving you my good wishes for a very successful work at Birmingham and a prosperous voyage,

and return to your own,
dear home and people in Montreal, all of which will I trust be fully accomplished.
I regret very much not to have seen you all again - The memory of my few inter-views with you, will always be cherished by me, both for your own sakes, and be-cause my dear Husband had such a friendly regard and respect for you & yours His feeling was a very warm one for Sir William Dawson.

My two Sons William Lamb and Robert are now in Sweden.
The former will return in time for Birmingham, and I hope the latter also - but he may be detained in Stockholm.

Farewell, dear Lady Dawson, My kindest regards to Sir William and love to yourself & daughter,

I am affec^tly yours

Suzanna Carpenter,

Tuesday.
