My dear Lady Dawson

It was so kind of you to send me a paper with the announcement of the birth of dear Anna's second son.

I am so glad that it is a boy this time, as a solitary boy is in rather an unfortunate position, being usually either absurdly worshipped or unmercifully smud-ged by his sisters: I hope that Anna is doing well, please give her

my love & tell her
that I look forward to seeing her some time during the winter.

We hoped to have been in Montreal this week but shall not get away
now until after 2nd Mas.
It is always a great pleasure to me to go
"home" as I always call Montreal, & I have a most grateful recollection of all your kindness.
I hope you will give my warmest regards to Sir William. We were all so delighted to think that at last he received some recognition "officially" & a portion of those honours which are so richly his due.

Believe me

with much love

Yrs very sincerely

Sophie Sabatt
