

Isabella Greenhilda

1884

45, Canning Street, Liverpool.

20 December

My dear dady Dawson.

I hope you will forgive my long delay in writing & congratulate you on your new & honorable title. I was so glad to hear of it & indeed I think Sir William Dawson's title was one wh. pleased everyone & I am sure his friends were all more gratified than he was himself. it was [1881]

45, Downing Street

Certainly a pleasure to attend to see honour bestowed where it was so due. —

This note must also give you my best wishes for the coming year with love for you & Eva. Mrs. Marrington — she has a few objects for her love who I hope is thriving. — Eric I am sure must feel at least a grandfather in regard to this new brother — he can-do not feel such an uncomplimentary label attached to be on his own label at all.

Our little Lou will be having his first little birthday very soon - he can stand at a chair now & creep - I dare say you would see a great change in his appearance now - though to me he looks much the same as he did at Beauvoir.
I saw Miss Crow at Mr

McGILL UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES
ACC. NO. 976/20
REF. 2

Puerto Nazuar yesterday - I am glad to say I have at last accomplished the journey across the river & call on the Cross wh. I left so long undone.

I suppose Mr. George has come home - I hope he has had a satisfactory summer.
You will have all that Mr. Richards near you this summer. —

Love & join me in kindest regards to you - please remember me to - I love you & all your family Believe me dear ever yours affectionately

Isabella B. Bunchell