Dear Lady Dawson

I am afraid you have not been able carry out your intention of carrying Sir William to some quiet place before the B. A. meeting

I imagine this because I greatly regret to see the name of "Lady Dawson"
among the injured
at that stupid accident at Portsmouth. I am afraid this means you
- it may not, of course, but I am so sorry if it be & hope you are not much hurt, &
still more, not much

Shakers, which is so frequently the worst of railway accidents.
I am so sorry there seems so little chance of our meeting. When do you come to Spring grove? If you come from London & this is not down for a Birmingham excursion, do come by the 10 a.m. from Paddington & break the journey at Worcester going on to Beudley in time for dinner. There is no difficulty whatever in breaking the journey even if you have booked thro' & Worcester is well worth a few hours. Of course you must do just as you like but if you come let me know & I will drive up to meet you as ^{the quickest} as some way from the station.

With remembrances to Sir William & sincere wishes for your own speedy recovery I am truly yours & if I know
