

Call. G. W. W. Sep 7/86

Dear Lady Dawson

You will think
there is no end to my letters, but I forgot to say in writing
to Sir William
yesterday, that if you will write for a copy

Of course it may be out of print by now of my husband's ~~article~~ essay on J. S. Mill & the Society have no loose copies left.

I have no doubt you could get it in a small volume
called "Strivings
for the Faith" published for the Society by Hodder & Stoughton
The volume contains

Three other lectures delivered on behalf of the Society.

I ought to have thought of this before

I hope you have had a pleasant week.

The idea of going to Sydney seems wild,
doesn't it? The expenditure of time & money on the sea-voyage would be so great & very few

get more than 3 months
consecutive holiday
- except Scotch professors who get six months

With best regards &
hoping we may meet
again some day!

Yours sincerely
J. F. Browne
