

Leuballen
Dec 1866

Dear Lady Danson.

Long ago
you asked me about
boarding places in Boston, and I
intended writing
right-away to a friend to see about
them, but something
kept coming up to prevent, and at-last I am sorry to say, it slipped
from my mind

until Mr Parkhall
said one day that Sir William was going in a few days
to Boston and you were going too. Then I thought how very negligent I had been and wrote
immediately, but I feel very much ashamed and
provoked with myself for my carelessness.

I received an answer on Saturday, and my friend Miss Sherburne writes that: - Miss Putnam is Commandant - Are she found "a back room with - during room attached that - she expects $50,00 a month for with-two paper and board, she has given up a girls school and taken this home near

Arlington St., and I suppose it is near Rep. There is a general parlour and a reception room. The house has been filled all along.
She also spoke of two other places. Mrs Plympton's 28 Beacon St., a very nice place, and the other formerly Rep. by Mrs Rand, were in

in somebody's else
Lands, 23 Beacon
St., but they had been having so
much company,
had not been able to see if there were any vacant rooms. But would let me know in
a day or two, so I may hear later
- now and if I do
will write immediately.

She also spoke

of the hotels, the Vendome and Brunsvick, that the Journal had been nicely fitted
up and was less expensive, Parkes
and Young's excellent
and on the European plan.

Miss Sherburne
also said if she knew where you were to stay in Berlin she should be pleased to

call on Jim

We dined with-
Mrs Havigton on Friday and she told us Jim was to be in Cambridge a few days, so I shall send his directy there

That Jim may get it -
as soon as possible,
Mr. Pugh

Join with me in wishing for all the compliments for the season, and wish a pleasant visit -
Believe me

Sincerely yours
Sadie A. Randall,

74 Butler St.,
Jan 2nd 1887.
