Dearest-mother,

Thank you for your letter - I will get you the egg. & indeed can get more easily if I wd like some for I wd get a box of 49 day in ~~eggs~~ proper divisions - at 16 cts a day - How does that compare with town prices? Please let me know at once - I wd like abt 20 day myself - & wd give you your 10 - & the rest to Ho - if the w^d like them -

B. is having no end of bother about things here - Frenchmen who either can't or won't pay what they owe the estate. & retard a settlement & a lot of stupid details on account of the child wh - might - easily have been avoided - & the notary here - Howard is a dilly-dally person & also pig-headed - his girls came up yesterday & has been working hard all day helping
B. - they had to drive 15 miles to St. Tholastique the nearest court.

also as a pleasant introduction to the profits of farming the bull belonging to the place & wh had never previously offended - broke out of his own field & great a neighbor have received as $100 - article of course & will have to pay - believe the former ought to pay bag but - I fear it is the story of it being left to take the week's probu the "Kellam man"

I have not heard whether you kate - but will let you know I find she is going to sail me & I do hope you will soon find a suitable succession - I have more more faithful, I not was pleasing than the late one - I don't know if you get the Cromney - to see all - but has to pleas'd so much on business - there is one letter-maker here said to be the good - & I hope to inquire from him tomorrow if he can let me have some but his price is said to be always very high, as well as his letters

He will be going down Monday morning at noon - & I expect to find some delay in the way of letters by the little way says still - more than

Yours Affly
Dear
