My dear Lady Dawson

We were all very sorry to learn through Miss Lunn's letter of the accident which happened to Sir William on Sunday.
And we trust we shall have a favourable report of him to day either verbal or by letter from her.
I know how anxious you will all be and that your Hands & hearts will be full so please do not think of answering this, but I could not keep sending you a line just to tell you how much we sympathize with you and how grieved we were to hear of it.

Of course I need hardly say that if there is any thing, that I could do for you in any way, you must not hesitate for a moment in letting me know, the privilege of being of use to one I respect and love as much as I do Sir William.

I would take it as a very great pleasure.

Lorne is with us at present.

He had a cruise in Mr Abbott's yacht with a party of friends down the gulf for a fortnight, which he enjoyed very much.

On Tuesday he is going to start on another pleasure to go to the North West with Sir

Stephen a brother Sir George who is going on business home as Sir George's Guest.
Georgina & Mr. Maber are at Aix taking for a change of scene & air, former as not been well for some time.
Victoria is in Yorkshire or rather she was, for she will be
