My dear Mother,

I have to thank you for your kind letter sent after your return home, which I was glad to know you managed comfortably. I have been progressing steadily since you left & have been at my office a while yesterday & again today, though not feeling up to lunch yet. It is quite surprising how weak one is after that disease.

I have a singular disinclination to do anything, which in the face of the amount that should be done is quite discouraging.

I hope you all keep well & will manage to shake off the influenza.

Yours
 Gust.
