My dear Mother,

I got here all safe yesterday morning, but I was then so run about since that I had scarcely a moment to myself & to time to write.

I was glad to hear that Father had quite recovered from his cold & that, apparently, all are well. Just as soon as I can arrange it I shall endeavor to pay you a visit, but just when this will be I cannot exactly say!

for it may take a few days to get matters into running order here & to decide about further movements. I shall let you know if Sir George should go to Montreal.
 He met Mr Van Harne here yesterday who was trying in getting him to go, but so far as I know he has not yet made any plans in that direction.

Yours

George
