Dear Lady Dawson,

It is indeed very pleasing to me to know from your kind note of yesterday received this morning that you are convalescent and altho' slowly, still gaining in health and strength. I sincerely trust you may soon have quite recovered.

I was sorry to hear Mr William had been sailing for a couple days back and hope he is now safe with Margie.
I should have called on myself to enquire for you and here, but have not been strong enough since my return from England three or four weeks back, to do much beyond attending to such business matters as cannot be deferred Believe me

Dear Lady Dawson
Sincerely yours
Wm. L. Smith
