

to be about $10. as that might be had, if rightly proved - & Douglas iterates & reiterates, that Hunt's great object was to secure improved editions, & to reward B - in a cheap & easy way - I did not expect much else, but we gudge the expense in journey far nothing - & legacies have never proved in our experience, of any practical value, though usually implying trouble.
your N. was present will be much more satisfactory - & if it does not get spent on any gross or shabby item, will be very comfortable, in many ways as one goes along.

Ruth & Clara are pleased with their present. & ^{Richard} dolls - indeed Ruth at this moment is making extra garments for hers = Wapai books I gave the children on Sunday as it was a quiet-day & too stormy to go out. It is amusing to see how delighted Bernard & Lois are with their books & carry them about &

study them over, & over, & even half is very particular about "mines"

Conrad is charmed with a vol. of "Sunday" which has some especially good things in it -
The older girls have two books that they can read to themselves on Sundays - & Eric preferred to have a box of chess men for which he said he had longed for some time he often plays with Alan Lois

Carlyle. I will take her a bunch of grass - The Rice is remarkably pretty I miss her & Mrs. West - who had a nest of hairs greatly admired it - Continental Knick Knobs are being made for your little - & it is a great comfort to feel that you find no more of us there - I have had a letter from George today about & speaking Frank - A charming letter about me & the children & one from Judge and to special P. was at Rock Ferry
now I must - It is your very confidential & unreservedly yours & I shall have a "base secret" time with mine & the parrot. With love Anna

I hear that Spain has the general is going - they say it is worse that who has suffered from so long - I this last of winter has not - when successful - his blockade, on the contrary seems to be slowly improving - I have seen his face & all the people & are mentioned, but has Spain & are will try & see to that soon

The news, shells etc etc around last - night - I have sent - Miss Keppell her parcel this morning - tomorrow I shall take as usual this I. G. K. notions & as to I have Assessment & tea with
