My dear Mother,

I feel exceedingly uncomfortably about the letters addressed to your various addresses will follow a week hence. I had no sooner got the Hotel San Marco address than I hear that you & father are about to visit Miss Keyser, whose address I do not know. I must say I am quite surprised at the manner in which your shift about, for my idea of a net & consciousness would be to found a good place & stay there till I was obliged to leave.

I have not yet discovered when I shall be able to return to Canada, or to make any plans about getting home, & it now seems sure that I must remain at least for another month, & probably for 1 Paris in March. It is very tedious in many ways but I cannot help it. The actual pressure of work is not so much now as before, & after a few days it may become even less.

The weather is fairly good, & some days almost spring like with more or less water sunshine.

I hope weather is fair all with you

Yours truly
J. W. [unclear]
