My dear Mother,

I have Father's note of yesterday & am sorry to learn from it
that you are again here in the doctor's hands, but trust that the attack has not been a serious one & that you are now in a fair way of recovery. One thing is certain, that you must be

Extremely Careful, & I hope that you will permit no considerations whatever to tempt you to the otherwise. I hope too that the influence of the College will not be such as to induce Fisher or myself to mix in any way in College politics, which would be most unpropitious. Now that Fisher is fairly out, his partner peace seems to me to depend on strict abstention.

I have been thinking in an indefinite way of visiting Chicago for a few days some time before the end of next month, but have arrived at no decision as yet.

Yours
 S. J. May
