March 29, 95-

My dear Mother,

I am not so sure that I will get down to Montreal on Saturday (tomorrow) for I don't seem to have quite got over the slight cold I had last week.
It was more or less of a grippish character & has left me with various wandering pains & uneasy feelings first in one place & then in another. If I feel up bit I will visit you but otherwise will stay here for Sunday & avoid risks of drafts & hot Cars etc.

Of course there is really nothing to prevent we from going if it will be of any benefit to you — so please let me know. It is only the idea that I may be more ready for work on Monday by staying than by going. If I go I will write you tomorrow.

Saw William yesterday evg.
He & all his people are well

Yours
Glaspe
