My dear Mother;

I yesterday sent Sam Mr. & William & also bought & sent to him some excellent claret, which I hope he will use. I think that it is well worth trying.
I asked him to dine with us last night, but they had some engagements, so he is coming tomorrow evening, when I shall give him all the good advice I can & enquire into his condition. I have not seen

I'm for some time, or have had any chance of talk. Called on New Years Day, but found them out & the time before found a pretty little clergyman of some kind staying with them - I believe he is there still.

It might be a good plan if you could induce W. to spend a few days in Warrington with you for a rest & change, but I will let you know more about this later if I can arrive at anything more definite.

There is a swell volume due you on the purchase, which I shall send you in stamps

When I can get them, but do not bother about sending money again for such a purpose. - Just let me know what you wish done & I will be pleased to arrange for it.

Yours

George
