Dearest Mother,

You ought to be nearly half way over the ocean & fear you must have had rather a rough second day judging by the rough sea - wind & rain that we had. I hear there were an unusual number of passengers on board & trust they may not be troubled some. It seems quite a long while since you left the empty house is very green & deserted your Annie's cousin died a few days ago, & she is now looking for a place. I have had several people inquiring for her, the last was Mrs Miller - to keep her here through the summer & I dare say that we'd visit her very well.

We go on much as usual

W. ably continues to improve, though he is still nervous, I has some times a troubled look, but Dr Browne thinks he has recovered much better than we cd have expected after such an attack & I hope to get-off next-Friday, & if we accomplish the journey in safety I hope he will soon leave the trouble whatever it may be behind.

W. has had a letter from Cecil with a statement, which no doubt you have also received, I do not-understand about-the freight or cartage, but-have not-had time to look over all the documents but-as he had practically done most-of his work W. - sent him the cheque for $25.00 I told him that we w_d be down next week & w_d go over the whole matter & settle with him - finally - Bernard expects to go on the long expected reflections tomorrow evening - to say I am the model and the party I hope to make the discrepancy of interesting to her -

I shall have no more news till we are off? while in your office we are - I's to continue the interest on my being kept - so quiet - while is not very often I have to be said - I will to go to my business for the time till the cables as however and - I had a lot of trouble in trying to arrange - but this is what I shall do I had - since she is here she would be kind back in fall if she stays she might come on - the same thing with us - but - we shall see later on - about - that?
My sister would be very disagreeable I must go - my sister - I don't know to see - I must go

affectionately
Adelina
