My dear Mother,

If nothing should interrupt I propose leaving here on Tuesday (9th) for Nova Scotia, where I will be for a few days, & on the way back I hope to be able to look in at Metis for a couple of days.
I will not have much time to spend, as afterwards it is probable I may have to run up to the North-west. Such at least is my present plan.
I was glad to see by the paper yesterday & the safe arrival of the Seston man & Eva, no doubt, is now with you & I hope well. I sent for a telegram yesterday which I hope she received.

Weather here has been cool & pleasant lately, though still quite summer like. Father & I hope is keeping well & I trust that you will make the occasion of Eva's visit a quiet & restful time for yourself.

Yours
 George.
