Dear Madam:

Your letter enclosing notes of Sir J. William Dawson has been received. We hope to be able to make use of the notes in an early number of the Review.

I send you by current mail a copy of the New York OBSERVER of August 11, thinking that your husband may be interested in a recent article from my pen, entitled "PRAYER IN ACCORD WITH <sup>6</sup>SIENCE." I have taken the liberty of referring to your husband's name in the article. Joseph Henry and James Dana were teachers and friends of mine. I have always recognized in your husband a staunch defender of the true Christian doctrine of prayer.

Trusting that his health is improving, I remain

Yours very sincerely,

D. S. Gregory
