My Dear Aunt,

My mother has been looking for a few lines from you for a long time, & is anxious to hear how Sir William is keeping, if he is quite recovered from his late illness; I sincerely trust so. —

I am grieved to tell you my mother is very unwell, the doctor gives gives us no hope, he thinks it is a clot of blood in her brain; she may last for a few days, but from her look I don't think much longer; my wife is more than attentive & anxious, we also have a trained nurse; in fact everything is being done for her comfort, but it is not easy repairing one in her 85th year. -

When in London lately
I called on Aunt Cleghorn, she has a very comfortable house & garden at Ealing; her address is 84 Gordon Road

Calcutta
London. —

She was looking well, but like many more years are telling on her, her family are also well. —

I hope this finds all your people well & with kind regards to all. —

I am

Your affectionate Nephew.
Alfred J. P. P. P.
— (10) —

P.S.

My mother sends her kind love. —
