

St. Pauls House

30 May 1899

Dear Lady Dawson

I have thought
much over your letters and I will do my what I can to see that

Dr Williams's earnest and anxious wishes are carefully considered - he will be so - that this should be so - so far

Lord Strathcona has not

Communicated to me
much of his plans &
has not definitely asked my counsel - I do not think I shall have much voice in the matter. The future of the Royal Victoria College has a good deal of perplexity in it to my mind. Sir William
may rest assured that,
so far as I am concerned in any deliberation in which I take part, I will not forget his services and his anxious wishes.

Believe me

Yours sincerely
James Barclay
