July 9. 99.

My dear Mother,

I arrived here this morning & this afternoon got safely through the Convocation & degree-giving function, attending a garden party thereafter & was in about an hour I left to be on my way back to Ottawa.
The day has been quite moderately cool & comfortable & although the ceremonies were somewhat protracted because of the large number of graduates of different kinds they were not very tedious.
Enormous display of ladies summer lots in all the colours of the rainbow & many others not made familiar in that way.

You & Foller for I hope reached Metis safely & comfortably.
The hot weather after I left you but must have made you very ready to go away, but Metis, I fear, may be some cold at times yet.

Don't forget to let me know if there should be anything I can do for you in Ottawa, or in Montreal for that matter.

Love to all

George
