My dear Lady Dawson

Fair would I say to you all that my heart dictates, for in the sorrows of separation, I well know what it means -

Dear Sir William has left behind, & shed abroad
a most noble example, surely one may rejoice
rather than grieve in that
"his reward is great"

Human sympathy is allowed us, I offer you & your dear family mine. Sincere loving, tender, & heart-felt

Ever

Your friend

Christina Mackay.
