Dear Lady Dawson,

On Sunday last, the day of your own bereavement, Mrs Macnider the wife of Mr John Macnider at the Post Office Little Metis, died after a long period of sickness. At the funeral service today the congregation by a standing vote authorised me to send you the telegraphic message, which I trust you received, as follows :-

"One hundred residents gathered in the Methodist Church. Little Metis at the funeral of the late Mrs John Macnider send Christian sympathy with Lady Dawson and family in their bereavement.

Alfred E. Pates. Pastor.

Kindly convey this message of condolence to Mrs Harrington. W. B. Dawson Esq and other members of your family circle with the assurance of my own personal sympathy.
yours very sincerely.
A. E. Pates.
