

Ottawa. Dec. 12,

1899

My dear Walter,

I hope to be able to send you some word of the acknowledgment notes tomorrow. I trust that you will bear in mind, however, as you yourself said, that there is no need to kill yourself with over-specialties. It will not wonder if some of your notes remain unanswered by weeks.

The proof of booklet will have any immediate attention when it arrives.

Raukive sends a note which you may like to see & which I enclose. I shall write to him today or tomorrow.

I hope you will feel that I am ready to run down at any moment if required.

Yours
 George.
