My dear Aunt

I feel I must write
you a few lines, to tell you how much I sympathize with you in having your dear husband
taken from your side.
How utterly Gods will
to bring comfort at such

51 BELTISE PARK GARDENS N.W.

a time I know, so I can only rejoice with you in that you have the tender loving sympathy of our Saviour, who lives for ever, & has promised to be a husband to the widow. oh how He meets
our heart in every need,
in His own best tender way.

I am so glad to know
you have your dear
daughter Anna beside
you at this time of sorrow, Lovingly your niece
Margaret A Kemp.
