Quebec, December 11th, 1899.

Lady Dawson,
Montreal, Que.

Dear Madam,

While enclosing to you a certified copy of a resolution adopted by the Protestant Committee at its last session I desire to associate myself with the expressions of respect and approbation contained therein, and to convey my sympathy with you in your deep affliction.

Although Sir William spoke a tongue and professed a religion other than my own, I feel that his achievements in the world of science and his work as an educator reflect credit upon all Canada, and that his loss is truly a national loss.

Believe me,

Dear Madam,

Yours sincerely,

Bouché de LaBrière

Superintendent.
