Dear Madam

I am desired to state that at the first meeting of the Council of the Victoria Institute held this day, it was moved seconded and unanimously resolved that the Victoria Institute has received with the most profound regret,

intelligence of the decease of Sir William Dawson, one whose kind and valuable aid to the cause of the Institute will ever be remembered by its members and which only represents a fraction of those benefits which he

conferred on a far wider circle both in England Canada and abroad
and which will ever be associated with his name

I am

Dear Madam

Most faithfully yours

Frederic G
