My dear Mrs. Dawson

We shall hope for the pleasure of seeing you, Dr.
Dawson and your Daughter at a friendly dinner on Tuesday the 29th Inst. at 7. 30 o'clock, one of the two days Dr. Dawson wrote as your disengagement.

I was very sorry indeed not to have seen you all when I called, but I hardly expected to be so fortunate as the day was a fine one. —

We were very glad to hear that you were all well, and had had such a very successful travel. It will be a great happiness to look back upon as life goes on.

With our kindest regards, I am, dear Mr. Dawson, very sincerely yours
Lucinda Carpenter,
