STONELEIGH,
ROCK FERRY.

My dear Cousin

Alice is writing you, and encloses a line to you to say how glad we will be to see you early in the season. If you carry out your intention of going to the seaside Alice & I would like to go also, if we could arrange it, for we have

Stoneland

I feel the need of a change of scene. but I would suggest Devon shire rather than the Isle of Wight. I have had such an amount of worry with the servants since you have been left & that together with the dismal winter have proved most trying to the nerves.
I never saw such a winter in England, latterly winds all February.

and March, & still the snow drifts lie deep over the country. It is such a contrast to read in the pills letters of the heat & sightseeing they enjoyed They have had a most enjoyable voyage & when they left wrote me after a good amount of sightseeing in Bombay, just leaving for a trip up the country to visit some of the old cities Besides their own party

Some of their fellows say they were going, which would make it more enjoyable. I hope of us at home, I am thankful to say are all well. Mrs Kudall has had a severe cough which has strained her side & gives her much pain.
Maggie Scott is to be at Minnie's next week on a visit. The 4 dear babies are thriving. Hoping to see you before long. Believe me to be Your affectionate cousin
