Dearest Margaret

I write a few lines to inform you of our arrival
here and that all
our arrangements at home & for the passage
are satisfactorily made.
The steamer seems a fine boat & scrupulously clean. Mr Gibson, Mr Miss W. David and Mr & Mrs Owen
are fellow passengers.
Gibson & Owen are far as Mrs. George is well and we are both in good

8 p.m. Received two business letters today
here, but not any from you, so I take you printed all is well.
I sent a large basket
by the Union this morning and George sent a fine bouquet; both of which I hope have reached you.

Love and Respects
to all, and best
prayers for you and mine and our reunion
by and by.

Your William
