Amey Gale

Newport.
October 9th

My dear Mrs Dawson.
Thank you
so very much for your kind letter of welcome which was forwarded to me
today. & still more for your kindness in asking to stay with
you. It is still so uncertain as to where I shall be in Montreal, or indeed, whether I shall be there at all. That you must forgive me if I am unable to give a decided answer at present. There is nothing I would enjoy more if my Father takes me back to London from New York, it will be a terrible disappointment.

Please don't speak
of our kindness to Eva. It was ^{she} who conferred a boon on us, in coming to cheer us in our exile - No new friends could ever make us forget the old friends & the beloved native land.

It seems a pity to give up the Reading Club, after all the pleasure we have derived from it, the last two winters &
if I am in Montreal
our meetings will bring back the old home
feeling & be so pleasant.

My plans for the winter are all so uncertain that I still do not know whether I shall spend the winter on this side of the Atlantic or not. In any case
I think Mrs Vauvach
will expect me for a little while & then of course, I hope to see all our Montreal friends.

Thanking you yet again for all your kindness - I remain yours most affectionately Amy Gordon Salt.
