

Dear Mr Dawson

I send you
the charts as you
may be a Phrenologist
and will take an interest in
looking over them
Mr Jennings considers Ann a woman
capable of Murder,
theft & every thing
bad. Louisa also
dishonest, and born
a drunkard
The women are

all of the lowest
order of characters
The animal years
very high
Catherine is thought to be in the family
way.

Ann is decidedly the
chief source immense
acquisitiveness also draw. do you not consider ann should be sent off at once
and I really fear Louisa cannot be
ruled

It has been before
my mind this evening
that we are acting
foolishly in allowing

any one from the Home to go out unless
with Mathew now
as he finds things -
are being out. I fear appointments are
made for now could
friends always see
when articles would
be ready to be carried
off unless a hiding
hole has been established.

In the town families
pay 1/3 for getting
washers home &
could not object
if the Home charged
the hire. Is the old woman to be depended on?

I think

at last we shall find the necessity
of having a respectable
under nation

Mr. McDougal wished
the right hand side
of Louisa's

If we could keep innates ~~from~~ entirely to themselves I am sure matters would be all right, I fear Mr. McDougal is not strong therefore requires some one the
can rely on.

With much anxiety
Remains Yours
