My dear Mrs Dawson

Mrs Marshman
is able to come on Wednesday, and will be happy to make your acquaintance

8
tance, and tell you of various works with which she is connected.

I enclose papers
she gave me for you
about two of them.

Our luncheon is 1 o'clock, and my husband and I will be very glad to see you and Dr Dawson

at that time on Wednesday. We hope your son will come also
if he can.

Yours, dear Mrs Dawson
Very sincerely
Margaret Gladstone
