

St. Ann's

Dearest mamma,

As we are going to the village this morning, I thought I might as well write you a note, to let you know that I arrived here safely yesterday morning, unfortunately it is so windy today that we cannot go out in the boat, a circumstance ⁱⁿ which you will doubtless rejoice as there will be no chance less of drowning my precious self - I am trying to be a very good little girl according to your injunctions, I am making myself useful by knitting a chemise for one of the children

As this will not reach you till tomorrow I will not likely write again, of course I will be in, on Saturday if nothing particular happens in the meanwhile Give my love to William Frankie & Eva, & of course papa too.

I am as ever

Your loving daughter Anne
