Nov. 13th

My dear Mr. Dawson

I was so surprised to receive your cards
this morning for it has only just come that I saw in one of our religious papers how Mr Dawson had been neglected for
of care, to take the best & cheap way has required so long, & I therefore did not expect the trip was to take place so soon.
I congratulate you

heartily for I knew it would not only be a great enjoyment to be for you, but it would be such a happiness to see, as I trust you will,
your dear husband
becoming incorporated & able to return to his loved work in
renewed strength.
I do not live in London now, & I am so far away
that it is not likely

I can beg you now,
but I should you return in the spring, if we can arrange a meeting I shall be pleased to see you once again -
You must excuse a short note as I am
far from well & ordered to rest. Writing tries me more than anything -

With very kind remembrances to J^r Nelson & your daughter I wish you much blessing in every way I am
Y^r very sincere
Edward Taylor
