To Mrs Danson

Dear Madam

This morning
Louise informed me that one of the Canton Flannel Petticoats was missing since last evening I immediately enquired of all the inmates but could not get any information I then searched all their rooms and in one I found a young Gentlemans Carpet Bag and a Dress Kid under the Bed - I then thought it best to call in a Police man and see if he could not frighten them into giving up the Petticoat but No - they all deny knowing anything about either Petticoat or Bay - I very much fear it is the girl that came back as she seemed the most frightened of any of them - I would feel much obliged if you will let me know what further can be done and if I have done right so far Please send a line by Rosa and oblige yours
