Acc. 1377

Leicester Vents.

Aug 14th.

My dear Mrs Dawson.

Enclosed I send
Mr Armstrongs note
telling the good news
about his wife, I am sure you will be glad to see it.

You will I know, be glad to learn that I have been to town

twice, first to Church, and yesterday to see Mrs Harrington. I hasten to tell you how well & how she looks, I think I never saw her
looking better.

You do not look like the grand-mamma of three children, but you may begin to feel like the, with the little treasures you are now

caring for, I trust they keep well, for I know how anxiously you will love for them.

The new baby looks like a child of six weeks old, she is a very fine little daughter.
Thank God, I am

wonderfully better, I can walk about with ease, very well.

Our kindest-remembrances to Dr. Dawson.

Will you give our love
to Mrs Carpenter.

When do you come home?
We shall welcome you,
but I say stay as long as you can!

With love ever

Your affectionate friend
G. Redfoath.
