Mr Vaneck
House Day Morning

Dear Mrs Lawson

If I have not sought you, since my return, it has not been from any forgetfulness.
Last Friday, I hoped to find you in your own house but the rain prevented - One quite long to see you, to make loving inquiries.

I trust you are all very much the stronger, for your sea-side sojourn.

Tomorrow evening, I hope to put in an appearance at Huron Church. Stanley I think it is where the "Principal" is to instruct and stimulate us - one dares not add - as usual -

It were high time, to send you some help for our dear old Mission - Enclosed, are five dollars from myself -

It grieves me to curtail my outs: Things are rather difficult for me at the present - but I will try to make it up from some other one -

Mr. Frasn's doo $5.00 and Miss <sup>Mary's</sup> ~~Joseph's~~ $5.00 Enclose - $15 in all - such a mite for the mites, which must be passing.

I will try to gather up something more -

May say to Lady Galt tonight that the money got to you all safe and on no account, trouble to answer this - withn make any effort to come to see me - I shall go to you - the claims upon me, all so few, compared with those for you dear, that I may well thank you -

Oh your usual, some time you will come - perhaps do me the sweet pleasure of luncheon -

Lady Galt is terrifically busy making visits!! don't tell by the hundred to be rung - and cards handed out - computations, that the figures so many of them, were out -

will you give my love to Anna! I shall go to see her and the Babes very shortly - The weather is not attractive for out door recreation -

I have been seldom out since my return - How delightfully busy and happy all the young people would seem - and what advantages they have Truly, the world will be the better for those same young people here and there -

Give my love to Eva -

Your son William is I hope, making rapid headway up the ladder of life. The Firm is interesting to me, from his name in it.

If I were only Irish, I should not add - if you are busy, dont read it all - Yours always with affectionate regards Katharine & Vincent
