

Mr. Tommick
Wednesday evening

Dear Mrs Lawson,

I write a hurried line in haste, just to let you know that several times, I have set out to see you, within a week past and strangely been prevented.

I wanted to tell you, a little more than remount says, concerning this wonderful

Marriage of the Judge's -

It astounded every body but myself and I have known all about his interest in her ever since it first began 19 years ago -

Can we not keep a secret?

Not even Lady Gull or Mrs T ever dreamed of it - or indeed any one, but us two -

You may ask, why he did not many but long time and I ask the same question myself - He has never been like of her all that time - a gap of 13 years - another of six. From time to time his interest waning and then

- At last, the result shows that he decided to take the step for better - for worse - Entre nous, his friends say it is a leap in the dark - for he really knows but not much, excepting by correspondence - but I do think myself, he will be happy -

Before he went, I got $10 from him for your Bible society's mission, which for temporal or spiritual needs - Special cases 1

In much love dear friend Katharine a Yarrumb
