

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to receive your letter of the 10th inst.
and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am sorry to hear that you are leaving us at length and wish to express my regrets on that account.
I am, Sir, your obedient servant.

back in the last days
containing the...
with the...
August...
the...
in the...
spirit...
I am...
sing...
man...
comfort, guide...
search...
I shall...

Long, long shall I think of you wishing to see you again and you much of much part with you heartily
When may we meet?
I hope to see you in June but before that I have much to do in the land where I am is not known, when there will be a long storm of formed in the good above O! that bright world might

Why do I cling so fondly to all dear to me here, at times I feel indeed that "save for the friends I hold so dear," I'd willingly close my eyes on all here.

This morning, a "dull heart-sinking drought" ripples upon my heart, I loze creeping with not ease my heart, it is so "hard from grief & part" but may be you will love me remember me, I am yr friend good husband whom I feel to love.

is all the world to you, yet ⁱⁿ me I see the corner of yr heart with my image dwelt. Had you not me some of yr approaching ruin I sh^d have sent you my portrait W^h I sh^d have had begun to really for you, as dear I as wished to you
-life, my ardent desire, as I had always the idea you sh^d go to W^h I even if I had been rich enough to have set such work, W^h I could not have furnished it, nor could I

From how I wish to send it —

A bad influence took place among the account of Jean Anne, whose sorrow we considered almost hopeless Till one of her friends & I proposed all last week, that going out in to see was almost my sole employment, much tho' I could not write you I was unable to do so —

I send you James' last letter, which of Jean Anne Anne May's she has been a great sufferer