

Mrs Williamson

Lallowfield ^{via letter} Acc. 1377

Thank you dear, for sending the scissors which are mine, though I am ashamed. It is true they had not been missed.

You are perfectly right in that you should enjoy looking through the old Mason House, beautifully restored; few things would give me pleasure & your kind words

I am very sincerely yours
Mrs
Williamson

Mr Williamson proved quite a young active sportsman, bringing home a bag that was certainly good for our holes, it was so very large & beautiful - Since then we have had a pleasant visit from Mrs Calvert the widow of one of our English Stage Reformers, & herself an Actress of high repute & spotless character - You will see we enjoy the friendship of as many classes of people as possible - now we are beginning to be quiet - which quietness may last perhaps two days or so. -

We all of us enjoyed your visit so very much, now it is over look back upon it as one of the delights that nothing can take away or spoil, & as, to me, the beginning of a friendship which I hope will last, whether we see much of each other or no - My letter is addressed to you dear, but will you ask Mrs Jackson please -

I almost envy you the days you spend among such enjoyments.

I am delighted to hear Mrs Dawson had been resting some what, will you give her my love, & thank her for the very kind & delightful letter she wrote me. We have had rather a whirl since you left us, just we went into the Country for some shooting
