

she seems to grow in grace daily & leads a life of perfect peace - They were a long series of meetings in Stearns Hall, I was last night I wrote - I meant to go at first; but all went, & from what I heard of them, did not care to give the usual -

With warmest love
From myself & very kind greetings from Papa

Always

Yours very affly
Sybil Wilson

It was so kind of you to send us such a pretty Xmas greeting & Papa & I both send our thanks & love - I wanted to write to you; but busy Anna is the only one, who never fails to get her letters off in time, it is so good of her - We were so pleased with Eric, who came to see us, such a nice companionable boy. Eva too remembered me with a pretty little book. you would miss her sadly at this season, only when the New Year is past, it seems to bring summer much nearer,

& with it, for you I hope, a sight of her - I was so much surprised one day, when Miss Lunn walked in, I scarcely knew her, not expecting to see her - poor Mrs Hunt too, she is so very deaf, one hardly knows what to do with her - I should have got more good of Miss Lunn, if she'd been alone - I have not seen Mrs Moffatt since then, she & Ida are living in lodgings, not very far off - people are very kind to them, I heard they were dining at Colonel Sweeney's (one of our grandest houses) on Christmas Day - Papa has gone back to College today, he thoroughly enjoyed his little rest, though in a very busy fashion.

We are going to Mrs Edward Blake's tonight, to a drawingroom meeting - when Dr Hoskin (your people) is to give a lecture on the 2nd Coming of Christ - He has been studying the subject for a long time & he & Mrs Blake were talking about it one day lately, he offered to give it, if she would ask people, so I suppose there will be a large gathering of all kinds of people of all creeds - I'm not sure whether it will be nice - for he gave 10 lectures on the subject, to his own meeting, & this one is to be the 10 concentrated cuts an hour & a half - In a period it will be too much compressed to be easy to understand - still of course I am going - I have not heard of Rankin for a long time, Eric could not tell me much - I am always interested in him -

Miss Linn told me you had a delightful new Professor, who is an earnest Christian, how very nice that will be -

I suppose you both hear from & write to Eva continually & know all her doings - Please give her my warm love, I mean to write to her at once; but sometimes delays occur - I am trying to think, who you will care to hear about - Do you remember Mr Willie Howland? I think you will,
